This notice is required by law. It explains our information practices. Our practices apply to all current, former and future customers.

Information We Collect: In order to help us serve your financial needs and to comply with legal and regulatory requirements, we collect certain information about you. This information varies depending on the products or services you request, but may include:

- Information we receive from you on your application or other forms (such as name, address, social security number and financial and health information), including information you provide via the Internet by completing on-line forms;
- Information you allow us to collect (such as health information for underwriting purposes) or information we are authorized or required by law to collect (such as your taxpayer ID number);
- Information about your transactions with us, our affiliates, or others (such as your payment history or account balances);
- Information we receive from a consumer reporting agency (such as an investigative consumer report, including credit relationships and history); and
- Information we receive from public records (such as your driving record).

Personal information that has been collected about you may be retained both in our records and in your agent's files. Reports prepared by an insurance-support organization may be retained by the insurance support organization and disclosed to other persons.

To the extent provided by law, you have the right to access and correct the information we have collected about you. You are also entitled to certain information regarding disclosures of medical information we may have made. To exercise these rights, provide a written request to the address below, which includes your complete name, address, date of birth, type(s) of policy(ies) held or applied for and all policy numbers issued to you by us.

The Security of Your Information: We maintain physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards that comply with state and federal regulations to guard your personal information. Our internal procedures limit access to customer information, and those individuals permitted access are required to protect customer information and to keep it confidential.

Information We Share: We may share your information with our affiliates to assist us in providing service for your products or account. This may include sharing information with our affiliates about your account history or experience with us; however, our affiliates do not use such information for marketing purposes.

We may also share some of the information we obtain about you with certain business partners, such as:

- Sharing information with companies that service your accounts, or that perform services on our behalf,
- Sharing information with companies with whom we have a joint marketing agreement. A joint marketing agreement is one where another financial institution offers a product or service jointly with us.

We require our business partners to protect customers' personal information and to limit their use of information shared to the purpose for which it was shared.

We may also disclose information to non-affiliated third parties as permitted or required by law, including in response to a subpoena, to prevent fraud, to comply with inquiries from government agencies or other regulators, or in order to process a transaction you request or authorize.

We do not share medical information except when needed to service your policies, accounts, claims or contracts; when laws protecting your privacy permit it, or when you consent. Medical information and information obtained from a consumer reporting agency or motor vehicle reports is not used for marketing purposes.

This notice is being provided on behalf of EquiTrust Life Insurance Company.

Receipt of this notice does not mean your application has been accepted. We may change our privacy practices at times. We will give you a revised notice when required by law.
